

The practitioners from Twist and Shout who request space at the event are:

Osteopaths: Jonathan Austin & Nick Foulds. Offering information and advice about osteopathy.

Massage therapist: Kerrigan Blyth offering free taster sessions. She will bring her massage couch.

Acupuncturist: Heidi Sharp offering information/ consultation and taster of auricular acupressure. She may only be available for the morning.

Counselling: Mindi Kane offering information/advice about emotional well-being. (She works for the charity Dorset Child and Family Counselling Trust and has also tried to established a self-help group to support sufferers of IBS)

There are several other practitioners who are potentials depending on availability of treatment tables and space
