

Wessex Cancer Trust

Wessex Cancer Trust supports local people with cancer in community based centres. It offers counselling complementary therapies and exercise classes to people with cancer, relatives and friends. The charity helps people come to terms with a diagnosis, supports them through treatment and helps them plan for the future. Wessex Cancer Trust also awards small financial grants to help people adjust their lives or their homes, as well as offering subsidised breaks by the coast.